NEW CLASS TEACHES THE BENEFITS OF COOKING WITH THE SUN

A new Solar Cooking/Build a Solar Cooker course is being offered by the City of Vacaville's Community Services Department that will teach participants the benefits of cooking with sunshine.

Participants in this class will create an economical, portable solar cooker and receive instruction on essential solar cooking tips. It's a great way to add solar cooking to your camping/backpacking adventures or emergency preparedness plan.

Classes are scheduled on Saturday, March 23, April 20 & 27, and May 18 from 10 a.m. - noon. The course fee is for each two-hour session is $21 with a $10 materials fee. Pre-registration is required due to limited space. Individuals can register online at www.cityofvacaville.com, with a client PIN and barcode, or at any of the following locations: McBride Center, Ulatis Community Center, and Three Oaks Community Center. For further information and additional class dates, call 469-4010.
