

ECONOMIC SNAPSHOT

EMPLOYMENT

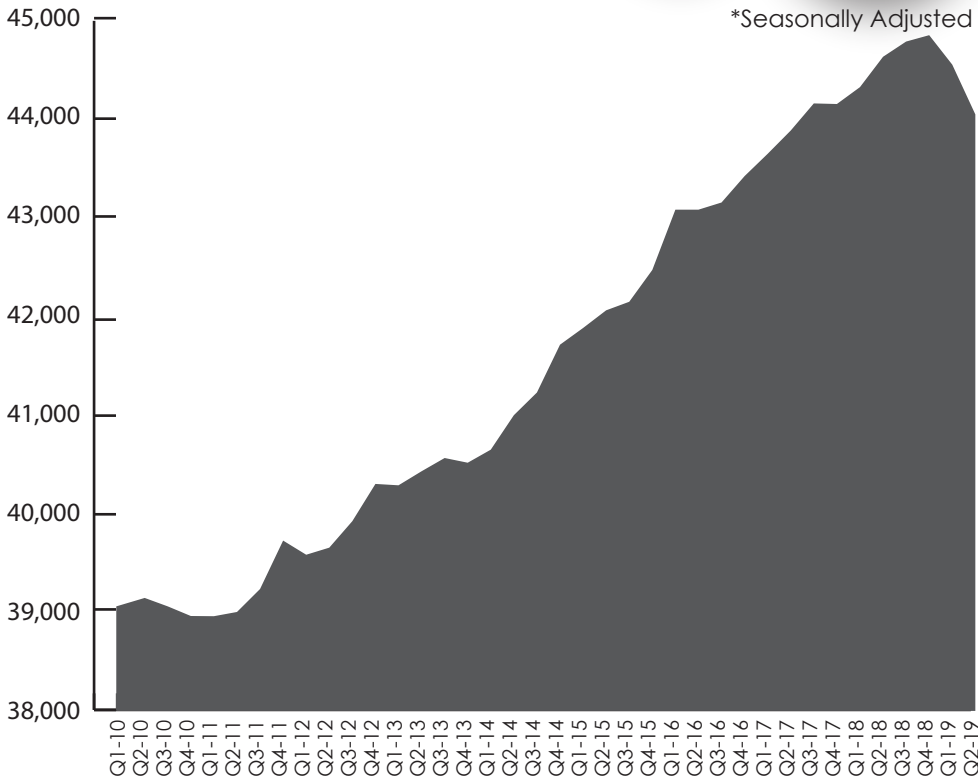

2010 = 100

12.8%

Q1 2010
100

Q2 2019
112.8

EMPLOYMENT AT A GLANCE...

There were 44,080 Vacaville residents employed in Q2 2019, up 12.8% from the base year of Q1 2010.

Employment was down 1.3% from a year ago and up .4% from two years ago.

Current employment is up 12.8% with nearly 5k more residents employed when compared to the base year of Q1 10.

Employment has increased or remained the same six of the past eight quarters.

2ND QUARTER TREND

There were over 44k Vacaville residents employed in Q2 2019, the second quarterly decrease following the end of a strong growth trend through the end of 2018. Compared to the previous quarter, average employment was down 1.1%. Overall, Vacaville employment is up 12.8% from the base year in Q1 2010.

Compared to Solano County employment, overall performance remains similar. There were over 199k Solano County residents employed in Q2 2019, down for the second quarter in a row. This was a slight decrease of 1.2% from the previous quarter. Overall, Solano County employment is up 12.5% from the base year in Q1 2010.

The December 2019 Vacaville Business Confidence Survey shows 33% of local business leaders expect to increase their employment over the next year. View the full results of the survey to see how local business leaders feel about the prospects of their own companies over the next 12 months. Contact Tim Padden for a copy at Tim.Padden@cityofvacaville.com.

INDUSTRY OVERVIEW

