HIT & RUN LEADS TO PURSUIT RESULTING IN DUI ARREST

Police arrested a Vacaville man after he led officers on a short pursuit following a hit-and-run incident early Saturday morning.

On July 28, 2012 at 12:19 a.m., officers were investigating a collision between a vehicle and a bicyclist on Elmira Road and Nut Tree Road during which the bicyclist suffered minor injuries. While the officer was completing his investigation, a second vehicle, driven by S-Jesse Daggs, 25, of Vacaville rear-ended the involved vehicle causing minor damage. The vehicle was unoccupied when it was struck and no one was injured.

S-Daggs fled the scene in his vehicle, at which time a motor officer began pursuing the hit-and-run suspect. S-Daggs pulled into an apartment complex in the 500 block of Elmira Road and stopped to the rear of the apartments. At that point, he was arrested for hit-and-run and evading police. Officers determined he was also intoxicated and driving on a suspended license for drunk driving. S-Daggs was booked into Solano County Jail for fleeing the scene of an accident, evading police, and drunk driving.
