Narrative:

On August 29 and 30, 2012, the Vacaville Police Department will be hosting training for members of the Solano County Mutual Aid Mobile Field Force. The training will take place in classrooms and in the field. The field exercises will take place on Horse Creek Drive. The primary mission of the Solano County Mutual Aid Mobile Field Force is to respond to incidents of crowd management, civil or criminal disasters and other incidents at the direction of the Solano County Office of Emergency Services.

Officers will perform mounted (vehicle) and dismounted (on foot) formations, arrest techniques, citizen rescues, officer rescues and crowd assessments. The training will take place in a controlled environment. Officers may be seen donning and doffing their equipment throughout the two days. There will be no use of munitions or chemicals and no firearms will be discharged.

There will be minimal interruption to traffic or businesses in the area. Citizens can drive from the Genentech and State Fund area to Kaiser by using Vaca Valley Parkway or New Horizons Way that will connect Ackerly Way and Grasslands Drive.

Any questions regarding the training should be directed to Sgt. Charlie Spruill or Sgt. Scott Whitehouse (Vacaville Police Department) at 449-5200.
