SUSPICIOUS PERSON CALL LEADS TO BURGLARY ARREST

Vacaville police arrested two men who tried to break into coin boxes inside an apartment building laundry room early Monday morning.

At approximately 2:02 a.m., police received a call of a subject loitering in the laundry room at the Shasta Terrace Apartments in the 300 block of Shasta Drive. When officers arrived, the laundry room was locked, but they could see a duffel bag inside the room through a window.

While talking to a resident of the apartment complex, officers heard someone jump out of another window in the laundry room and gave chase as the man ran through the apartment complex. The man, later identified as S-Marshall Young, 34, of Vacaville was eventually located in the 200 block of Stonyford Drive. S-Young was identified as the person who ran from the locker room by a witness.

Officers returned to the laundry room and determined S-Young was attempting to break into the washing machine coin dispenser. The duffel bag officers saw contained tools used to pry open the coin dispenser. S-Young was then arrested.

Shortly after the foot chase of S-Young, an officer contacted S-Kimo Agoo in front of the apartment complex, questioned and released him. Officers later learned a man fitting S-Agoo's description was seen running away from the laundry room. Officers went to S-Agoo's apartment and questioned him about his involvement in the burglary. S-Agoo was on active probation and evidence linking him to S-Young was located on his cell phone. S-Agoo was also arrested.

Both male suspects were booked into Solano County Jail for burglary, conspiracy to commit theft, possession of burglary tools, and violation of probation.

The Vacaville Police Department encourages members of the community to report suspicious activity working in partnership with the Police Department to solve crimes.
