SUNDAY MORNING ACCIDENT LEADS TO SERIOUS INJURIES, DUI ARREST

An early morning accident on Sunday left a man with serious injuries and another in jail on charges of driving under the influence.

On May 12, 2013 at approximately 5:24 a.m. Vacaville police and firefighters responded to a report of a traffic collision involving two vehicles on Leisure Town Road south of Purple Martin Drive.

Upon arrival they found a 1998 Chevrolet Camaro and a 1997 Dodge Neon that had been involved in a serious accident. The driver of the Camaro, De Sean Dennis, was out of the vehicle and standing on the shoulder of the roadway. The driver of the Neon, a 54-year-old man from Davis, was trapped in the driver seat. Firefighters extricated the driver, who was airlifted by REACH helicopter to UC Davis Medical Center in Sacramento.

Dennis, 22, of Vacaville was transported by paramedics to Kaiser, Vacaville. Dennis displayed symptoms of intoxication and was arrested for DUI while at Kaiser. He was later transported to Solano County Jail where he was booked felony DUI. The driver of the Neon sustained fractures to his orbital bone, ribs, and femur.

Anyone with information is encouraged to call Officer Chad Hudson at 707-449-5200.
