PAIR ARRESTED FOR A DAYTIME RESIDENTIAL BURGLARY

On September 3, 2013, during daylight hours, a residential burglary occurred in the 300 block of Woodstock Circle. Taken during the burglary was a Ford Bronco and other household items.

On September 4, 2013, at approximately 1:12 p.m., the Vacaville Communications Center received a call from a citizen who spotted the stolen vehicle traveling on Peabody Road. The citizen also provided a description of the two occupants. Patrol units from the Vacaville Police Department found the stolen vehicle on Peabody Road, abandoned. Officers set up a perimeter and a search was conducted for the wanted suspects.

A detective assisting in the search observed the pair near a vacant house a few minutes later and took them into custody without incident. Evidence located at the scene implicated the pair in the burglary from Woodstock Circle. S-Armond Bass and S-Traci Paolini were booked into Solano County Jail on charges for residential burglary, possession of stolen property, and possession of a stolen vehicle. A parole hold was also placed on S-Bass and a probation hold on S- Paolini.

The Vacaville Police Department wishes to express our thanks to the citizens who took the time to get involved in this criminal investigation. Without their help, this arrest would not have been possible. The investigation is still on-going and anyone with information is urged to call the police. Detective Senf can be reached at (707) 449-5245 or our 24 hour dispatch line at (707) 449-5200.
