Vacaville Kid Fest 2013

It's that time of year again for Vacaville Kid Fest. Our main theme has always been "For the Child in all of us."

This is a special day where families can come out and enjoy activities with their children at very little or no cost. They will also have the opportunity to learn about many of the services and resources that are available to families in our community.

There will be 70 vendors, live entertainment, games, crafts, bounce houses and food. Besides all of our wonderful returning participants, many new vendors will be joining us this year, including Solano Jumps and Battle Recon Laser Tag. As always, the popular Vacaville Police and Fire vehicle displays and Sheriff's Horse Posse will be showcased.

There are a lot of things to like about living in Vacaville, and activities like Kid Fest are typical of a community that cares about its residents; young, old and in-between.

Kid Fest would not be possible without the wonderful support and partnerships between the Vacaville Police and Fire Departments, Northbay Healthcare, The Reporter and KUIC.

Vacaville Kid Fest takes place in Andrews Park on Saturday, October 5th, between 10 am and 3 pm. Admission is free. For more information, visit www.vacavillekidfest.org or contact Gretchen Ash at 707-449-5432.
