POLICE SEEK OWNER OF MEDICAL DEVICE MISTAKEN AS POSSIBLE BOMB

Vacaville police are looking for the owner of a grey bag that was mistaken as an explosive device on Thursday evening in the parking lot near Brenden Theaters.

At approximately 5:31 p.m., Vacaville Police received a call from a recruiter at a nearby military recruiting office in the area. The caller told police there was a grey canvas zipper bag underneath his government-issued vehicle that was not there when he had parked the car at around 3:00 p.m.

Officers arrived on the scene and set up a perimeter around the area that required some theater employees and others to find alternative ways to get home while the bag was investigated.

The Yolo County Bomb Squad was contacted and responded to the scene. Upon their arrival, they took x-rays of the grey bag and determined it did not contain explosives. The bag was opened and a medical breathing device was discovered. The bag did not contain any information that could identify the owner.

The Vacaville Police Department is trying to locate the owner of this item so it can be return to them. If you lost this item please contact the Vacaville Police Department (707) 449-5200. We would also like to thank the citizens who were inconvenienced for their patience during this incident.
