ULIBARRI SELECTED TO SERVE AS INTERIM VACAVILLE POLICE CHIEF

Randy Ulibarri has been hired to serve as Interim Chief of Police for the Vacaville Police Department.

Ulibarri takes over for Richard L. Word, who announced his retirement and plans to leave the City in November. Ulibarri, whose first day will be Nov. 18, will lead the department while the City begins a search for a permanent replacement. The recruitment process is expected to take four to six months. Word's last day is Nov. 27.

Ulibarri spent 30 years with the Union City Police Department, being named Chief in 2000, a position he served in for seven years. He has also served as Interim Chief of Police in the cities of Newman (2007-2008) and Folsom (2010-2011).

A graduate of California State University, Hayward (East Bay), Ulibarri also attended the FBI National Academy and the Peace Officer Standards and Training Supervisory Leadership Academy. He is married and has three adult sons.
