POLICE INVESTIGATE SHOOTING IN SOUTH VACAVILLE HOME

Police are investigating a shooting that took place a little before noon Wednesday in a South Vacaville neighborhood.

On November 20, 2013 at approximately 11:32 a.m., the Vacaville Communication Center received a 9-1-1 call from a caller reporting a shooting at a home in the 100 block of Kingsland Court. Police and fire units responded and found a 21-year-old male, who lives in the home with family members, suffering from a single gunshot wound to the head.

The shooting victim was transported to an area hospital for treatment. He was in surgery at the time of this press release and his condition was considered very serious.

A 67-year-old male who lives at the home was also transported to the hospital for shortness of breath. The Vacaville Police Department's Investigative Services Section (ISS) responded to the scene and took over the investigation. Initial reports indicate that family members were involved in a heated argument. Two male subjects began struggling over a handgun and the weapon discharged. The investigation is ongoing, and a motive for the shooting is still being explored.
