POLICE SEEK SUSPECT IN ATTEMPTED ARMED ROBBERY AT LA COSTE

Vacaville police are looking for a man who attempted an armed robbery of the La Coste outlet store Tuesday evening but fled when police were called.

Vacaville police received a 9-1-1 call at about 8:16 p.m. Tuesday evening regarding an attempted armed robbery that just occurred at the La Coste Premium Outlet. The store clerk stated the suspect had been in the store for approximately 20 minutes. After selecting several articles of clothing, he approached the front register and placed the items on the counter. As the clerk began to ring up the items, the suspect passed the clerk a note which indicated he was robbing the business. When the clerk hesitated, the suspect lifted up his shirt, displaying a black semi-automatic handgun in a brown holster. The clerk informed the manager the suspect had a gun and requested police be called. The suspect then fled the business on foot.

The suspect is described as a black male adult in his 30's, 5' 9", 180 pounds with long black dreadlocks. He was last seen wearing a blue and white checkered dress shirt, jeans, gray tennis shoes and blue sunglasses.

An extensive search for the suspect was performed, including a police department K-9, but the suspect was not located.

Anyone with information related to this case is asked to contact Officer Dave Novelli at (707) 449-5200.
