POLICE ARREST CHP SERGEANT ON CHILD PORNOGRAPHY CHARGES

Vacaville police have arrested a California Highway Patrol sergeant working out of the Fairfield CHP office on child pornography charges.

In August 2014, the Vacaville Police Department's Investigative Services Section (ISS) initiated an investigation regarding the downloading and sharing of child pornography. Utilizing specialized software, detectives were able to develop information child pornography was being downloaded by an unknown person in the cities of Suisun, Fairfield, and Vacaville.

Further investigation led to S-Eric Lund, 49, as the person responsible for the illegal activity. S-Lund, a resident of Chico, is a sergeant with the California Highway Patrol (CHP) and is assigned to the Fairfield CHP Office. Vacaville police contacted CHP officials during this investigation and solicited assistance and the CHP is fully cooperating with the investigation.

On October, 16, 2014, police met S-Lund at the Fairfield CHP Office and served a search warrant in attempt to locate additional evidence. During a search of S-Lund's personal vehicle, an external hard drive was located, which contained multiple downloaded child pornography videos.

S-Lund was arrested and booked into the Solano County Jail on charges of possessing obscene matter; a minor in sexual acts; and sending/selling obscene matter depicting a minor. S-Lund's bail was set at $115,000. S-Lund posted bail on October 17, 2014 at approximately 3:30 a.m. and was released.
