SUSPECT ARRESTED IN STOLEN VEHICLE

On Thursday, November 27, 2014, at 10:31 a.m., Vacaville Police Department dispatch received a report of a vehicle that had just been stolen from in front of an apartment in the 500 block of Rocky Hill Road. The vehicle was described as an oxidized 1990 Toyota Camry. Dispatch broadcast the stolen vehicle information to officers. Within moments, Officer Carly Broaddus was driving in the 500 block of Markham Avenue and saw a vehicle matching the description preparing to pull onto Markham Avenue from the parking lot of an apartment complex. Officer Broaddus contacted the driver and the vehicle was found to be the reported stolen Camry. The ignition on the vehicle had been dismantled. The driver of the Camry, S-Kimo Agoo, was arrested for vehicle theft. S-Agoo was also found to be on active probation and was placed on a probation hold.

Anyone with further information is encouraged to contact Officer Carly Broaddus, 707-449-5200.
