VACAVILLE POLICE ARREST PAROLEE ON ASSAULT CHARGES

Vacaville police arrested a local man after he assaulted a business owner on East Monte Vista Avenue on Tuesday evening.

At about 7:00 p.m. Tuesday, officers responded to the area of the 1000 block of East Monte Vista Avenue where, according to witnesses, an assault had occurred. A man entered a business and asked the owner about purchasing drugs. He was asked to leave the business but refused and was then escorted out of the business.

He then returned with a large piece of wood and struck the business windows with the wood. The owner of the business confronted him, at which time the business owner was struck in the head by the man.

Police found the man, later identified as S-Daryl Pugh, 33, of Vacaville walking down the middle of the street near East Monte Vista Avenue and Brown Street. He was arrested without incident for assault with a deadly weapon and an unrelated "Parolee at Large," Violation of Parole warrant issued by the CA Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation. His original commitment offense to the Department of Corrections was robbery. A photo of S-Pugh is included.

Anyone with information related to this case is asked to contact the Vacaville Police Department at (707) 449-5200.
