DOMESTIC VIOLENCE CASE ENDS WITH ARREST THANKS TO K-9 ROSCOE

A police K-9 helped Vacaville officers arrest a local man on charges of domestic violence Saturday afternoon.

Officers responded to the 100 block of Holly Lane for a report of domestic violence. Officers arrived and learned the suspect confronted the victim as she got out of her car in the parking lot of her residence. Witnesses reported seeing the suspect punch the victim several times in the face while she was holding her small child. The victim tried to get in her car and leave. The suspect prevented the victim from leaving and forced the victim out of the car and back into the residence.

Officers made several attempts to contact the victim and suspect inside the residence. The victim fled the residence with her child when the suspect fled out of a back door. Officers saw the suspect climb a fence and force his way into a neighboring residence.

Officers contacted the resident who verified no one should be in the residence. Officers made numerous announcements ordering the suspect to surrender, which he failed to do. Officers then made entry to the residence for community safety while continually ordering the suspect to submit to arrest. The suspect was eventually taken into custody with the help of K-9 Roscoe.

Officers identified the suspect as Salvador Isaias Lopez, 25, of Vacaville. S-Lopez was transported to the Vaca Valley Hospital emergency room for treatment of a dog bite. He was medically cleared and then booked into Solano County Jail.

The Vacaville Police Department would like to thank the community for taking the time to become involved in the safety of their community. This case would not have been resolved without the assistance of the community. Anyone who believes that they may have information regarding this case is asked to contact Officer Kevin Foderaro at 707-449-5200.
