VACAVILLE PAROLEE ARRESTED FOR EVADING POLICE, OTHER CHARGES

A parolee was arrested Saturday night after a short high-speed pursuit at speeds of up to 90 mph.

A Vacaville police officer made a traffic enforcement stop in the 1400 block of East Monte Vista Avenueat about 10:07 p.m Saturday night. As the officer approached the car the driver sped away. The car fled west onto Monte Vista Avenue at a high speed before turning north on to Allison Drive. The driver threw items from the car while fleeing at approximately 90 mph.

The driver lost control of the car after a short pursuit near the intersection of Allison Drive and Browns Valley Parkway. The car struck the north curbline, disabling the car, fled on foot and was arrested a short distance away. Police arrested the driver, Ryan Francis Caligiuri, 25, of Vacaville - the only occupant of the car.

(More)

Officers recovered ammunition on Caligiuri, who is on active parole and a convicted felon. He is prohibited from owning or possessing ammunition or firearms.

Officers conducted an article search with two police K-9 teams along the pursuit route. The K-9 teams located a .38 caliber revolver and a loaded .44 Magnum revolver that had been discarded by Caligiuri. Caligiuri was booked into the Solano County Jail without further incident. There was no other property damage and no injuries.

The Vacaville Police Department works diligently to protect the community. If you witness a crime you are asked to safely call 707.449.5200 or 911 if it is an emergency. Anyone who believes that they may have information regarding this case is asked to contact Officer Kevin Foderaro at 707-449-5200.
